

I am upset that wisconsin's Do Not Call list might be voided and less strict federal standards put in its place. I have been on wisconsin's list since it first was instituted and my wife and I greatly appreciate not being bothered by commercial calls. Please allow wisconsin and other states set their own standards for Do Not Call lists.